

Bernette Sherman

At the core, everything requires creativity. Nothing exists without being created - first in the mind and then by our actions to bring those things to life.

- Bernette Sherman

BEST-SELLING AUTHOR OF SCI-FI, FANTASY, INSPIRATION AND POETRY INSPIRATIONAL SPEAKER AND COACH

Bernette comes to the world as a creative individual with a passion for transforming lives through words, whether that be through talks, her written works, or music.

Her book Heaven is Now: Enough Excuses. You ARE Worth Living For! is a collection of essays, talks, meditations, and poetry to encourage living the life you want today. Her poetry book Resist Persist is a timely collection that reminds us to resist that which is untrue to our highest sense of self and persist in that which expands love, peace, and truth for us and even the world.

Bernette's desire is to continue moving and growing herself and to inspire others to move their creativity from heart to sole!

Bernette is a certified coach and holds her Bachelors of Business Administration and Masters of Public Administration from Georgia State University. She is also a former Miss Black Georgia Metroplex and Miss Black International.

"You really are the original, the first to come to mind, and I really enjoy and appreciate your clear and definitive way of presenting information."

- Victor Belton, Co-chair, Healthy Belvedere Initiative (now PAHL)
