

FINISHING TOUCH PLAYSHOP

An active playshop that helps put the finishing touch on poetry and monologues and refine presentation of pieces to be performed.

Through demonstration, practice, and group coaching participants will work through the content of their poetry or monologues to bring out the best in a performance. Following this important first step participants will engage in partner activities, whole group activities, and receive guidance and feedback from Bernette to refine their work. Depending on the playshop length, scheduled one on one coaching is available as well.

Participants in the Finishing Touch Playshop will:

- Refine their prepared poetry, prose, or monologues
- Gain confidence through presentation practice
- Receive constructive feedback and guidance
- Have an opportunity to present to group

Minimum and Maximum: A minimum of 4 and a maximum of 20 registered students ages 10 and above or entering the 5th grade

Student Supplied Materials: A 'near final' draft of the poem, prose, or monologue to be used; Notebook, pen/pencils or laptop

Duration: This playshop may be scheduled for as little as two hours and up to a full day of six hours. Depending on number of students and length, participants may schedule individual coaching sessions.

Playshop Fee: Varies by group size. Begins at $100 for general groups and $60 for small non-profits.
